

VINCOMM HIRES PETER LLEWELLYN AS CHIEF TECHNICAL OFFICER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SAN DIEGO, JUL 10, 2006 (BUSINESS WIRE)—Vinculum Communications, Inc., (Vincomm), a premier provider of VoIP network carrier services and IP trunking solutions, announced the hiring today of Peter Llewellyn as Chief Technology Officer.

Llewellyn brings a wealth of VoIP, network and telecom knowledge from more than 16 years of experience in the telecommunications industry. Most recently, Llewellyn was with Accerris Communications (formerly WorldxChange), where he was responsible for the operations and management of 11 Class 4 switches across the U.S. Vinculum president Scott Goodwin explains, "The addition of Pete will dramatically affect the positive success of our retail hosted telephony services."

As principal engineer and project manager at Accerris, Llewellyn led their successful retail VoIP product launch. After nine years with Accerris (six in the US and three Australia), Llewellyn says, "I'm excited to be part of such a dynamic management team here at Vinculum. Launching a killer product like Vintalk™ makes it that much better!"

A native of Australia, Llewellyn relocated to the U.S. in May 2000. Previously, he worked for Telstra Australia at the Perth Inmarsat Satellite Ground Station and various other switching and transmission facilities. Llewellyn earned his Associate Diploma in Electrical Engineering (major in Communications) at North Sydney in 1990.

About Vinculum

Vinculum Communications, Inc. (Vincomm) is a San Diego, California-based, 214-licensed international long distance carrier, offering termination services to more than 150 long distance carriers worldwide. Customers enjoy the highest-quality in long distance calling, along with lower costs, increased profit margins and global coverage.

www.vincomm.net